! Did you know? In Polish plural non-masculine nouns (those which do not indicate males) can have the following endings: -a, -y, -i, -e. Almost all plural neuter nouns end in -a. In general, feminine and masculine nouns end in -y, e.g. bilet, bilety (ticket, tickets). After -k or -g they take an -i ending. After certain consonants – ni, Ń, sz, cz, rz, ź, l, j, c, dz, ś, ć, ż, nouns take an -e ending. Plural nominative forms are always used after numbers 2, 3, 4 (as well as 22, 23, 24, 32, 33, 34 etc.). After 5, 6, 7 the genitive noun case is needed.
